Innitou

The theme of our yearbook, the Innitou, brings together the Spirit of Horn Pond and the rich history of Woburn High School.

Horn Pond was one of the more frequented camping sites of the Native American Indians. An Indian named Manitou, known as the Great Spirit, was believed to live on Horn Pond Mountain, also called Mt. Towanda. He delighted in gazing at his image reflected in the water below. Thus, Horn Pond as it is known today was called Lake Innitou, meaning "Looking Place of the Great Spirit."

The Innitou yearbook reflects the image of the Class of 2004 in the memories they have shared at Woburn High School with their friends, the staff, and in all the activities throughout the four years they have spent here.

We sincerely hope you enjoy reading this and sharing our memories!

We are proud to be the 150th graduating Class of Woburn High School.

We are Seniors

Remember sitting in the auditorium on the first day of high school, nerves running through our bodies, listening intently as Mr. Norton spoke to us for the first time. He said to us, "You may not know it, but these four years will fly by." Many people thought, "Yea, right," but, wow, was he ever right. Four years done, gone in the blink of an eye. Friendships have come and gone, hearts have been broken, and lives have changed forever, but through it all we stuck together. We are Seniors! We are the Class of 2004.

We are about to enter a whole new chapter of life. Some of us will be going on to college, while others will be starting their careers. We will carry with us the memories we have as well as the lessons we have learned. Wherever life takes us, we will always reflect upon our years spent at WHS!

As we go on...

We Remember...

We will always remember the people we have met along the way, including the teachers who have helped mold us into young adults. We will never forget the classes we spent daydreaming about the future, the sports we played with such ferocity that you would think winning was a matter of life or death, the clubs we stayed after school for, and the café where we divulged secrets to our friends and discussed our classes.

Standing in the crowded bleachers, the crisp October air whipping at our faces, those were the nights filled with football games and followed by Breaker's ice Cream. We went to overcrowded parties, where you could barely walk through a room without stopping to talk to at least three people. How could we forget our greasy fingers from buttery popcorn and filling up a row at the movies with our closest friends. Remember the car rides we took to other towns, cruising down the highway, feeling invincible as the dark sky took over our thoughts.

All the times...

We spent together

Remember eighth grade orientation when all the activities were explained to us? Little did we realize how important it was to be part of our school. Through the years we have met new people and learned to broaden our horizons. We have made so many memories during car washes, raffles, food drives, dinners, and volunteering. We became an important part of the community. By trying out and making a sports team we became a part of another tight knit community. Remember all the talks in the locker room, getting excited for the big game and of course those famous pasta parties.

We've made it!

From skinned knees, climbing trees, and running away from cooties, we've emerged into mature young adults. The past four years have gone by faster than anyone could have ever imagined. We are Seniors! We have graduated! Some of us have made life long friends and some people, we may never see again. The bonds that will always keep us together are the cherished memories, friends, and experiences that we all have shared.

Summertime...

School has ended for the year; we flocked out of the building as if we all had very important places to go. We piled into cars on scorching summer mornings headed to the beaches. We played frisbee in the evenings, had barbecues at night, and fought off the mosquitos as we watched the stars shine. These are some of our summertime memories.

Dedication

Mrs. Joanne O'Brien

We, the Class of 2004, along with the Woburn High School staff wish to dedicate our edition of the Innitou to a person who has dedicated 29 years of service to the Woburn school system.

Field Hockey

The girls' field hockey team's record may not indicate a "winning" season, but that can be disputed. Although the team finished the season with a 2-15-3 record, many of the losses were by only a goal. "Our team was competitive with every team in a very strong Middlesex League. We never gave up... never lost the will to win.", stated Coach Locke. dolor sit amet consectetur adipiscing. This is the body copy to the page. It is size ten, Captians Liz and Missy, were elected to the All Star Teams respectively. Along with Missy and Liz, five other seniors will be missed. Geat job Woburn Field Hockey!

Boys Soccer

The 2003 season began with a commitment, "ONE TEAM- ONE PURPOSE" And that purpose was a winning season. The season was one of great success with a record of 11 wins, 4 losses and 3 ties. The team received the 11th seed in Div 2 North. The Div 2 North semifinal was against the number 7 seed, Danvers. This game was a marathon that saw Danvers take the lead with 8 minutes remaining and we tied it 36 seconds later. This game was the most intense of the tournament which saw us still tied after two ten minute overtimes (100 total minutes of playing time). We went to a shootout which saw us lose on the last of five penalty kicks. This was a very disappointing loss after a truly great team effort. One thing that will always be said about the 2002 Tanners is that they never ever gave up. They played every game to finish with class and dignity and were the student athletes that made Woburn High proud.. They were "ONE TEAM- ONE PURPOSE" to the end.

Captains

Good season Boys! It's too bad we never found a better team than us. A/R Chu parking, bus rides, pasta parties and putting Woburn Soccer back on top. Couldn't have asked for more, we the best, nothing less. Good luck next year.

After having graduated outstanding players from last year's Division 2 State League

Typical School Morning

Buzz... It's the alarm clock. As we rise out of bed, whether it be on time or later, most of our days begin with a run to Dunkin Donuts for that morning caffeine. We hurry to get to school on time to make the morning bell. We sit in our classes getting ready for a day of learning and being with our friends.

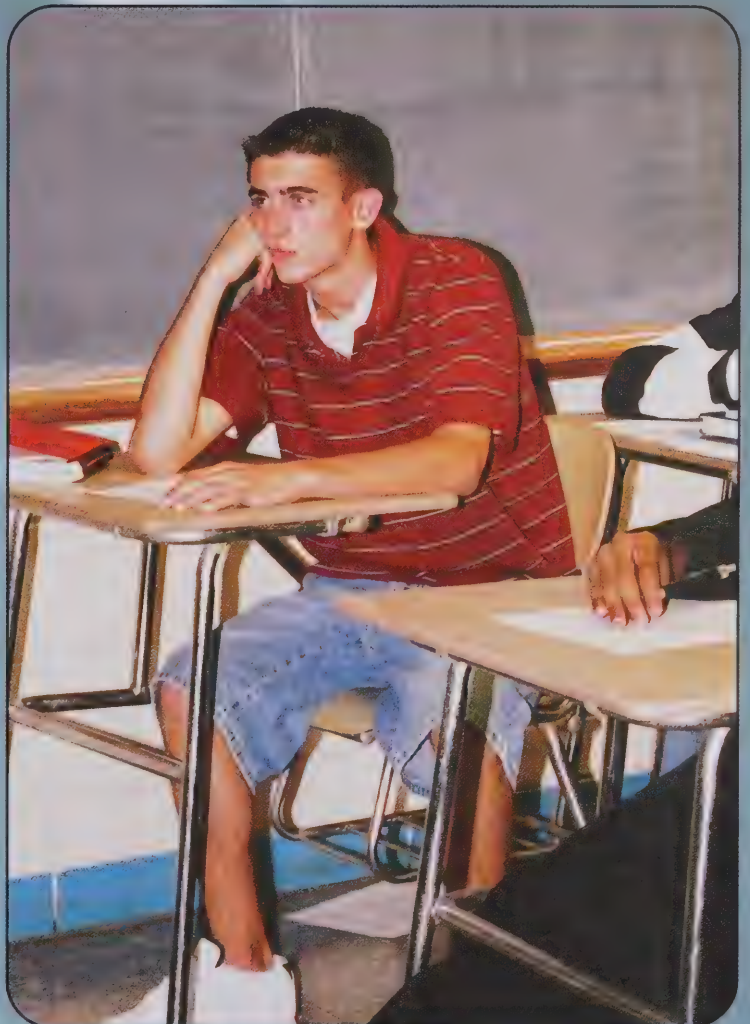

Jump start your morning!

Checking out the pictures!

Waiting for class to begin.

Meditating!

We will always remember the activities that we had at Woburn High School. The pep rallies, dances, blood drives, raffles, elections, lip sync contests, plays, and assemblies.

Remembering the proms...

Getting glamorized for dances and the proms. Finding a date and a dress. Hair and nails, tuxes and tickets, everyone looking their best. Dancing all night long.

Remembering our days at school...

A typical day at Woburn High School. We will miss those days!

Freshman Dance

In March of 2001, we had our first dance in the historic Flaherty Auditorium at Woburn High School. The event was postponed a couple of months due to a huge northeast snowstorm. Tickets were purchased at a high cost of $5. We walked through the doors with our old friends and new friends. It was just the beginning.

Sophomore Semi

On May 3, 2002 inside the Flaherty Auditorium at Woburn High School we celebrated our first Semi-Formal dance. We arrived at the semi via our parents SUV's. The cost of tickets were $10. The DJ kept the songs flowing all night long while flashes from the strobe lights caught life moments forever.

Junior Prom

After much anticipation the Junior Prom was held on April 11, 2003 at the Wyndham Hotel in Andover. The cost of a ticket for the evening was $50. Because of the rain, umbrellas were the popular accessories for the night. We walked into the hotel as if we were movie stars. It was an evening filled with glitz and glamour. It was a perfect night!

Pep Rally

A huge crowd of students and faculty filed into the gymnasium with smiling faces. The final countdown of one day left, for the big Thanksgiving Day football game. This year it was the last time our team played in Connolly Stadium. Over the next couple of years a new high school will be built on the football field. We celebrated the 99th anniversary of the Woburn/Winchester rivalry.

The cheerleaders, band, and dance team added to the atmosphere of the event. The fall sport teams were recognized for their outstanding performances on the field. The players and the crowd went wild as the coaches made speeches. We anxiously anticipated the big win over Winchester.

Rocky motivates the crowd.

The whole school enjoys the show!

Dance on!!!

Back in motion!

Our band members.

Turkey Toss

Waking up extra early on Wednesday morning before Thanksgiving has become a tradition for upper classmen of Woburn High. Because it is the annual Turkey Toss at KISS108. Two seniors, Dan Welch and Keegan Denapoli practiced in their backyard for days and it paid off. They came in second. Woburn always has the biggest crowd!

Bicks after the toss.

Matty in the morning.

Extreme Tanner Pride!

Donnie, where did you get that turkey?

Thanksgiving Day

On a beautiful sunny 27th day of November the 99th anniversary of the Woburn Winchester rivalry took place. It was also the last game to be played at Connolly Stadium. Woburn honored Joe Castiglione by retiring his number 34. To remember this historic occasion, a helicopter was hired to capture the moment with aerial photos. Tanner Pride was abundant and the field was retired in style with a victory.

Breaking through for victory!

Black and orange ...Give a hearty yell.

Celebrating victory 24-0.

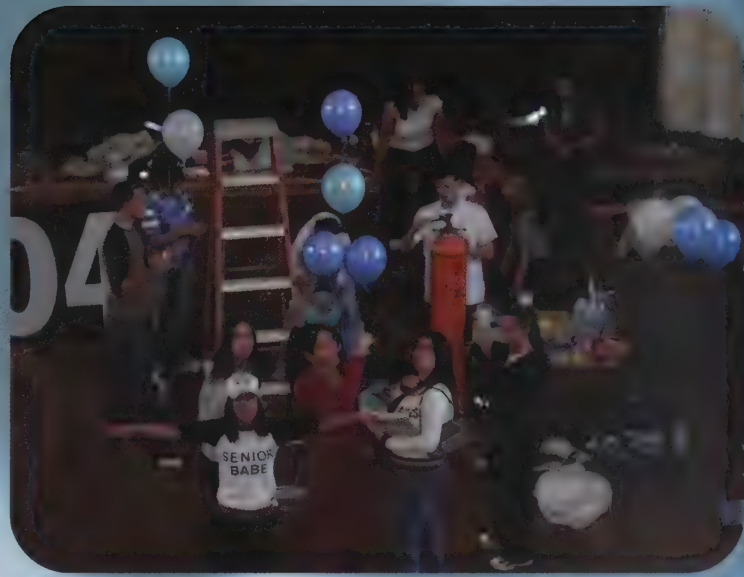

Gaff fires up the crowd.

Holiday Dance

On Friday, December 12, 2003 on a cold New England winter evening we graciously walked into the Flaherty Auditorium for the last time to celebrate our Holiday Dance. The auditorium was decorated with holiday cheer and spirit filled the air. The DJ played our favorite music as we all danced the night away.

Memories

Pictures trigger events and memories. Our school has made each of us a well rounded person by giving us a wide selection of electives to participate in and enjoy.

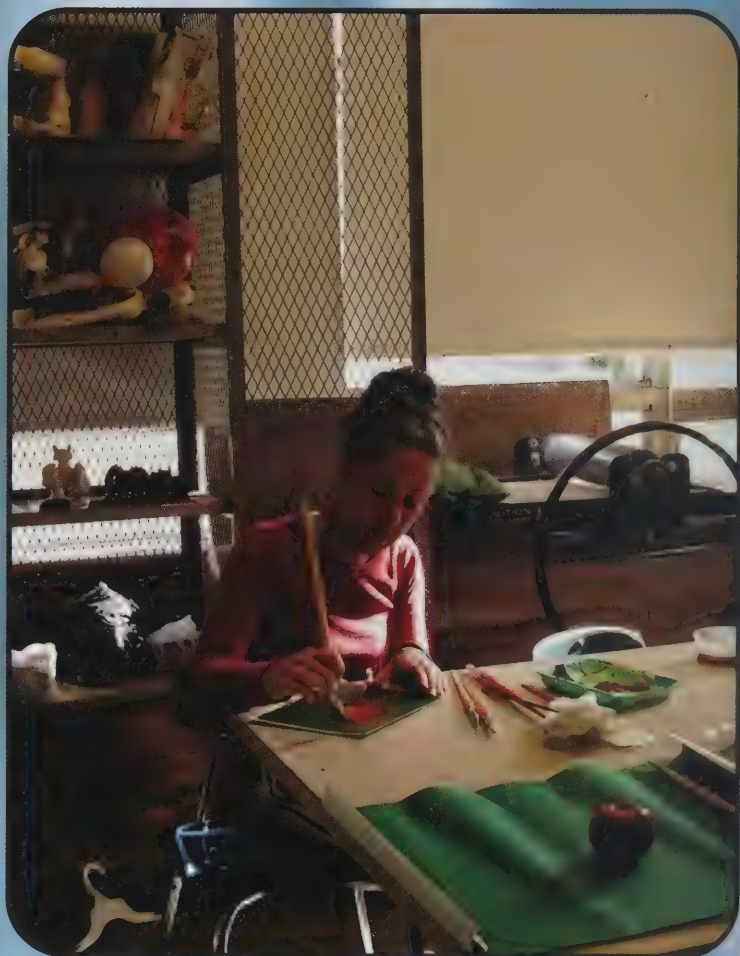

The band plays on.

What a racket!

Watch your fingers!

The next Piacasso.

A Typical Afternoon

We click our pens and tap our feet to start as we anxiously await the final bell to start our afternoon.

Some of us will go to work, some of us will hit the fields. Others will head to activities or simply get in the car, go home and chill out or go online.

Leaving so soon?

Is your parking permit valid?

Look! We are not looking at the keys.

Almost time to go home.

Bringing Mrs. Andrew her lunch.

Gaskell's Guys!

Got books?

Keep blocking that door boys!

Danielle's power drink is working.

Still waking up.

Guys, whatever you do, don't go in there!

Look at my hat! Look at it!

Just keep smiling, maybe the camera will leave.

Looking lively.

*Here's to the tears
we knew we'd cry.*

Look, I'm using my desk as a drum!

What a mega watt smile.

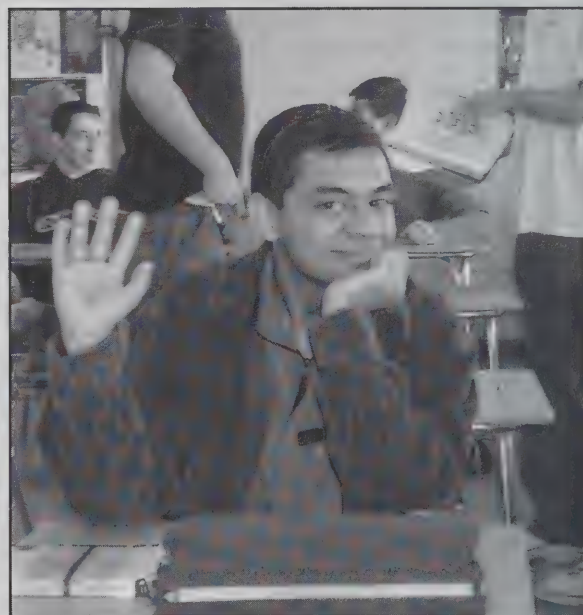

*Here's to

Ciao!

Double dose of goodbye.

Adios!

Bye bye!

Catchaya later.

Help! Were trapped in a box!

Tomorrow's gonna come too soon.

Were are outta here.

Looking pretty!

Now wave goodbye, Mel!

Stop right there!

Superintendent's Message

To The Class of 2004

Congratulations on your successful completion of 12 years of public education. As you listen to the many who will also offer congratulations, you should feel a profound sense of pride for your accomplishment. That pride is shared by your parents, your family, your friends share that pride, and by the Woburn Public Schools who have all in their way assisted and supported you. We applaud and celebrate with you as you take your place among the graduates of Woburn High School. You reflect our commitment, you represent our aspirations, and you have earned our warmest wishes as you set out for a wonderful future.

Again Congratulations!

Sincerely,
Dr. Carl R. Batchelder
Superintendent of Schools

To The Class of 2004

Congratulations on your graduation from Woburn High School. This marks the end of the first part of your life. Now the second begins, as a young adult.

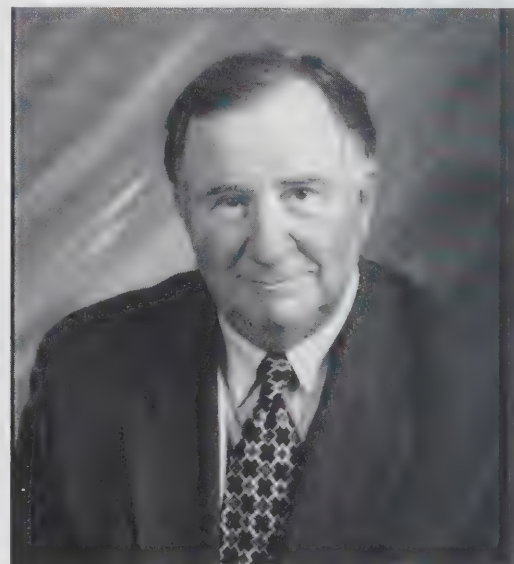

Twelve years ago you entered the Woburn Schools and began a journey where you learned English, math, science, and social studies, but more important, you learned about yourselves. You went to school, participated in activities and made friends. For many of you service to others was a significant part of your high school experience. If it was, keep it up. If it was not, get involved in your community. By participating in service you found a way to help someone else. When times are most difficult, helping others is the best way to help yourself.

You have been an outstanding class and we wish you the best. As the old Irish verse recites "May you live as long as you want and never want as long as you live." Best wishes!

Yearbook Staff

The Innitou 2004

As first year advisors, we are extremely proud of this yearbook. We have updated the process of creating the yearbook by incorporating an overall theme, computer technology, digital photography, custom layouts, adding captions to photos, 16 new pages of color and more text.

Our dedicated staff has worked many long hours during the summer, in school, after school and at night. We are excited to present this wonderful addition of The Innitou to you.

A special thank you to all the students who submitted ideas, photos, and poems. Your contributions to the yearbook have enhanced these pages of memories.

We hope this yearbook will be a lasting memory of your high school years and a reflection of the rich history of Woburn High School.

Mrs. Elaine Farmer and Mrs. Susan Thifault

Getting it down to the details.

Teamwork!

Ideas, ideas, ideas...

Checking the schedule.

Refresh the Memory

By Kristen Skerry

It only takes one minute to refresh any memory.
After all is said and done, all that will be left is remembering.
Of classes and teachers, assemblies and speeches.
After each beginning must follow an ending.

We are the ones who helped each other grow.
And we got this far together without letting go.
In caps and gowns and tears; forced to face our fears.
That our ties will break even though that's impossible.

It's the same old routines and daily sights, no matter how old they've all gotten.
That make the thought of leaving our friends and surroundings the hardest.
It only took four years, and now it seems we're here.
We're s.p.r.e.a.d.i.n.g. our wings to a whole new beginning.

So here's to our future,
And all that we worked for.
From the café to the campus we go.
And though the colors will fade.
Tanner pride will remain
Black and Orange in 2004.

Looking Back

-Anonymous

Looking back,
On the last four years,
We've shared our hopes,
Our dreams and our fears,
All of the memories,
Too many to name,
Have made us grow,
And made us change.
The friends we've made,
Will stay in our hearts,
Though the time will come,
For all of us to part

We'll take with us,
The lessons we've learned,
To guide us through,
Life's twists and turns.
What the future holds,
Is unknown and bright,
But whatever it is,
We'll continue to fight.
Though the uncertainty ahead,
We must conquer to strive,
But one thing is for sure,
WHS has touched all our lives.

Fading Memories

By Tanya Carter

As we walked the halls as timid freshmen
Towards the last days of our senior year.
We took the moments to reflect upon the treasures we hold most dear.

A remembrance of mental photographs of great moments placed in the heart:
The football games, proms, dances, and rallies.
Memories from which we must never part.

Special teachers, those who cared,
who helped us achieve and encouraged our dreams.
Friends to share the joys and tears brought us together as though we were a team.

So here's to new beginnings,
and the time to say goodbye!
Though we'll travel our separate ways
May we never forget "The Spirit of Woburn High"

Here's to the Crazy Ones

By David Queen

Here's to the crazy ones.
The spiky haired kids, the outsiders, the troublemakers.
The round pegs in square holes.
The ones who see things differently.
You can love them or hate them.
Agree with them or disagree with them.
Glorify them or vilify them.
About the only thing you can't do
Is ignore them.
Because they change things.
They imagine. They create. They heal.
They explore. They create. They inspire.
They push the human race forward.
How can you sit in silence and hear a song that's never been written?
Or sit in an empty hockey rink and imagine the best game of your life?
Or look at an empty canvas and see a work of art?
Some see them as the crazy ones, where I see them a genius.
Because the ones who are crazy enough to think,
They can change the world, they are the ones who do.

These memories will never fade
from the summer sun to winter fun.
Cars, boys and making noise
will bring smiles in many years.
Graduation is here, but our friendship is forever true and will always be there.
The dreams and tears we've shared has made our friendship grow stronger.
This precious gift we will always treasure.

Kim Butler – Missy Farmer

My heart goes out to you with love my friend;
For you will always be there by my side.
In times we jokes and laughs would never end
And those times we made rivers when we cried.

I am there for you like you're there for me;
Whether you're far away or down the street.
Our friendship is as strong as it can be-
My partner in crime, we cannot be beat.

As we get older, going different ways
We may not be as close as we are now.
But when we get old and our hair turns gray,
The memories will sure to be avowed.

A friendship like yours is forever true;
I'm lucky to have a best friend like you.
